

TERMS OF BUSINESS & PAYMENT INFORMATION

RESERVATIONS AND BOOKINGS

- A hunting Safari with THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS is only booked and confirmed into our hunting calendar once a pre-agreed deposit has been received, together with a signed Safari Contract;
- No Hunting Safari will be booked without a signed hunting contract;
- Upon booking a hunting safari and paying the required deposit, the hunter automatically accepts the terms and conditions set out herein.

DEPOSITS AND PAYMENT OF SAFARI

- A deposit of 50% of the daily rates for the entire duration of the hunt or package price is payable to secure the hunt;
- The balance of the total daily rate or package price is payable 45 days before commencement of the hunting safari;
- Trophy fees, Value Added Taxes and any other costs are calculated on completion of the Hunting Safari and to be paid upon completion of the Hunting Safari prior to departure from the Concession Area;
- The Outfitter will be entitled to retain trophies as surety, if any amount due and payable on a completed safari, is still outstanding.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

- Deposits (Less 10% administration fee) are refundable provided that cancellation is received in writing 180 days prior to commencement of Safari;
- In the event of a cancellation prior to 90 days of commencement of the Safari, the deposit will be refunded (less 20% administration fee)
- In the event that the cancellation is within 60 days of the commencement of the Safari, the deposit is forfeited, unless the Safari is postponed to a later date, provided that it takes place within one calendar year of the cancelled Safari.
- No refunds are allowed for late arrivals or early departures;
- If a hunting Safari is canceled prior to the commencement of the Safari, the Safari dates may be transferred to another suitable date provided that it occurs within one calendar year. A transfer is only allowed to be done once
- The proposed client agrees not to hold THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS responsible should the Government or land owners change or withdraw quota allocations or should THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS lose a particular concession area after signing of the Safari Contract. In the event of cancellation on the part of THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS, all deposits will be refunded in full.
- Any unused fees or deposits paid in advance will be refunded by THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS within 7 days of completion of the Safari

CHANGES IN PROGRAM

- The tariffs are based on current currency prices and are subject to change without prior notification,
- THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS reserves the right to change conditions, prices and or terms herein without prior notice due to government levies and legislature;
- Based on the outfitters knowledge and experience THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS has the exclusive right to move a client to any camp or hunting area where he feels the client will have a better chance for success, at any time before or during a hunting safari, at his sole discretion. By confirming a safari, the client is prepared to share the hunting camp with other hunting parties. Under special conditions THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS will accommodate only one hunting party in a particular camp.

PACKAGE SAFARIS

- Package safaris are discounted, however the service and hunt is not compromised.
- Package safaris are sold on the basis of two hunters hunting with one Professional Hunter,
- All Package Safaris are quoted per hunter per package,
- Other trophies may be hunted whilst on a package safari and will be billed according to the Price List;
- All animals wounded or shot must be paid in full,
- No refunds are allowed for late arrivals or early departures,

REQUIREMENTS OF HUNTERS/OBSERVERS

- All hunters and observers are required to sign a Safari Hunting Indemnity Agreement before commencement of the Safari;
- Clients must be in possession of a passport valid for at least 6 months AFTER the end date of his safari and with at LEAST 6 clean pages left in such passport (the latter is not compulsory but recommended in some African countries who may issue visas at the port of entry).
- It is the responsibility of clients to ensure that their flight tickets, travel documents and applicable inoculation certificates are in order. Invitation letters will be issued by the Outfitter upon request and only after receipt of the necessary payments and information from the client.
- Clients are responsible for all health, medical evacuation, travel, trip-interruption and cancellation insurances along with short term insurance against theft, loss and damage of goods, including trophy shipments and should contact their insurance broker or travel agent for quotations on available packages.
- Clients are responsible to obtain all inoculations and preventative medications and prophylaxis prior to their safari and should consult their doctor or travel clinic regarding the relevant health risks, regulations and requirements.

LIABILITY

- THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS, its agents and employees shall not be held liable for any damage, losses and expenses suffered by any client as a result of sickness, quarantine, weather conditions, war, strikes, riots or any other cause outside its control,
- THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS, its agents and or employees, accept no liability in respect of death, injury, loss or damage to person or property arising out of any act, omission or negligence. The client shall be deemed to have waived renounced and abandoned any and all right or entitlement which the client may be entitled to under the provisions of the law of the Republic of South Africa for any loss or damage to person or property
- THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS shall not be held liable for any loss or expense arising from the loss of property, cancellation or curtailment of the hunting safari however caused, save only to the extent that such loss of baggage, cancellation or curtailment was caused by the Outfitters negligence.

POSSIBILITY OF ENDING THE SAFARI

If the client does not accept his Professional Hunters instructions and the Outfitters requirements; his behavior and manners make it impossible to stay on the normal course of the hunt; he produces a danger; or poses as a threat to himself and others, the Outfitter reserves the right to immediately end the Safari, back out of the Contract, and he may lay financial recompense for all the booked hunting and non hunting days.

Although such cases are very, very rare, we would like to highlight the importance of respecting your Professional Hunter and Outfitters instructions and guidelines. Remember we are only interested in safeguarding your safety and the safety and welfare of our employees and offer you a successful hunt.

GENERAL TERMS

- All Safaris are subject to quota availability at the time of booking. THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS cannot guarantee any quotas as the government and land owners regulate these. The dates available will be in accordance with the availability of concession areas, camps and quotas on the Outfitters booking calendar at the time of the Safari;
- Preference will be given on a first come first serve basis;
- Quotations are valid for 30 days only;
- Should the parties fail to enter into a signed safari agreement, then the terms set out herein will apply. By making payment of the deposit, the client automatically agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions as set out herein;
- In all matters where it is or may be necessary to have recourse to the Court, the Courts of the Republic of South Africa shall have sole jurisdiction to the exclusion of the Courts of any other country and the prevailing law of the Republic of South Africa shall prevail.
- The client must deal directly with the designated trophy shipping agent and must pay all air freight, packing, dipping, documentation and shipping fees to the shipping agent direct. The Outfitter cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage once the trophies have been delivered to the shipping agent. Trophy insurance is strongly advised.
- Clients are expected not to carry any unlawful articles or substances whilst in the Southern African region. If any hunter or observer offends against the prohibitions set out herein, the Hunting Outfitter will be entitled to immediately exclude from the safari hunting party the offender who will be responsible for his or her own repatriation and all costs thereof. THAT'S AFRICA SAFARIS will under no circumstances assist any such offender in any dealings or negotiations with any authority.
